DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 61-101 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's arguments filed 10/23/2003 are considered persuasive and adopted by the examiner as the reasons for allowance. Specifically, the examiner is persuaded that the prior art does not disclose "shoulder axes (or axis) being positioned below said associated frame rail" as recited in independent claims 61, 72, and 81. See applicants on pages 14-15, bolding those portion of the claims, as well as the discussion. Similarly, the examiner is persuaded that the prior art does not disclose "a second rotational axis located below said first linear axis for rotating said first arm link relative to said carriage" as recited in claim 90. Examiner is also persuaded that the prior art of record does not disclose "said third and fifth axes are located below said first and second guide rails and above a top surface of the article" as in claim 91. The examiner is also persuaded with respect to the amendments to claim 98, reciting "the third axis is located below the first axis" and "the fourth axis is located below the second axis".

Applicants arguments with respect to Sugata are persuasive to show that Sugata does not show these features. See page 18 of the remarks.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to George R. Koch III whose telephone number is (571) 272-1230. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9-5.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Philip Tucker can be reached on (571) 272-1095. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
